Harry Potter Character Creator – Spring Boot Web Application

This project is a Spring Boot web application that allows users to create a custom Harry Potter wizard character. The application uses a web form where the user enters information such as name, Hogwarts house, wand wood, patronus, favorite spell, and magical power level. The form sends the data to the backend using Spring Boot and displays the result on a second page using Thymeleaf templates.

